

Membership Rules

- Members must follow the COVID Safe Plan of the venue attending.
- We do not provide reciprocity with other U3A organisations.
- Intending members are entitled to attend one group session before becoming financial.
- Membership enrolment fees are non-refundable. Where special group fees apply, fees will be refunded only should the group not proceed.
- Involvement by Group Leaders and Committee members is on a voluntary basis.
- A supplementary cost may be imposed for some groups for incidentals and/or materials.
- Members should notify Group Leaders if unable to attend group classes.
- All members should wear their current badge to U3A classes and functions.
- The names of members, visitors and guest speakers must be recorded on each session's Attendance Record.
- Membership is open to all persons over the age of 45 who are no longer working full time.
- Members wishing to resign should do so in writing.
- U3A Tweed Coast Inc constitution may be viewed by contacting the Secretary.
- Members attending classes held in a Registered Club, eg League or Surf, must be current members of that club.
